25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

cc
Honorable Clinton P. Anderson
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Clint:

Several weeks ago you tried to reach me by telephone and, subsequently, you talked with John Warner of my office concerning [redacted] Business Machines Company who were in town. At that time [redacted] talked with Mr. Warner and arrangements were made for a later meeting.

Subsequently, properly qualified people in the field of badges and identification systems met with [redacted] and others of the Company. During this meeting with Mr. [redacted] he explained fully the various products and systems of his Company. At this time there are no specific requirements which could utilize the services of [redacted]. However, our people constantly are studying this general problem and plan to keep abreast of the developments in the field generally including the work done by [redacted].

I appreciate your interest in bringing this Company to our attention.

Sincerely,

OGC/LC:JSW:mks (20 Feb 62)

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. John Warner

Please write brief letter for DCI's signature to Senator Anderson explaining action taken by us at his request. Also emphasize to Security Office no obligation to make extraordinary efforts to pursue this matter because of Anderson's request but, if useful to you, and only on this basis, should we follow up.
